

Garment Construction

This class can be either for a beginner or capable sewer.

Where do we start and how are these classes structured?

- Either with sample work as a beginner to gain confidence before starting a garment or move straight into the construction of a garment.
- Students will purchase their own fabrics and notions to complete their garment. (JACH Textiles has some patterns that the student can use to track relevant size required.
- Students will be instructed on how to take a range of body measurements to ensure that the student cuts the correct size garment.
- Students will be guided and instructed through the construction methods that will hopefully produce a well constructed, professional looking completed garment that you can be proud of.
- Fittings will take place at different stages of the construction process to ensure a correct fitting garment

How many sessions will this take?

You may attend as many sessions as you wish 😊 . These classes are held on a Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday, morning (9am-12am) and afternoon (1pm-4pm) sessions as well as Saturday from 10am – 1pm.

COST PER SESSION – PER PERSON;

Each session is 3 hours long at a cost of $45 per session. Full payment is required at the beginning of each class.

What do you need to bring and what do I provide?

I provide the sewing machines and overlockers. These overlockers are provided with cotton either in black, white or beige. I do provide the general sewing kit equipment such as fabric and paper scissors, tape measures, pins, needles, trailers chalk etc that you are more than welcome to use whilst you are working in the studio. I have a small range of patterns that you may find to your liking that you are welcome to have a loan of.

Students are required to buy their own fabrics, pattern and notions to complete their chosen product.

Students are more than welcome to bring their own sewing machine and sewing kit to class but it is their responsibility to collect it at the end of each class.

Full payment is required before the commencement of class
